Long Neck Sunrise Rotary Club Donates $500 to Home of the Brave Women's Shelter

(Millsboro) (December 13, 2016) — As part of its mission to serve the local community, The Long Neck Sunrise Rotary Club presented a $500 donation to Beth McGinn, Chairman for Home of the Brave at the club's holiday party held on December 13, 2016 at the Ocean Grill II, Long Neck. The check was earmarked to assist the work of Home of the Brave's Women's Shelter.

Home of the Brave Chairman, Beth McGinn (left) received check from Judy Hall, President, Long Neck Sunrise Rotary Club.

Home of the Brave is one of the organizations supported annually by the Long Neck Sunrise Rotary Club, funded by the proceeds of its annual Charity Golf Tournament held each year in June at The Peninsula. This year's outing will be held on June 8, 2017.

"We are thrilled to have the support of the Long Neck Sunrise Rotary Club each year," states McGinn. "Many of our veterans fall on hard times when they return home, and with the help of organizations like Rotary we are able to help them transition."
